

FIERCE FLOODS IN THE EAST

Boundbrook, N. J.: Under Ten Feet of Water

FIRE AND FRESHET UNITE THEIR HORRORS.

Current So Swift That No Aid Can Be Given to the Victims—Eleven Men Drown in Bristol, Conn.—Workers On a Bridge Killed—The Structure Falls While Men Are Strengthening It.

New York, Feb. 7.—The Raritan river has overflowed its banks, and Boundbrook, N. J., is under ten feet of water. Many residences have been carried away. Fire in the lumber district of the place adds to the horror. Many lives are reported lost. The swiftness of the current defies aid for the victims. The loss of life may reach into the hundreds.

Bristol, Conn., Feb. 7.—The New England railroad bridge over the Pequonuck river between this town and Forestville was swept away last night and eleven workmen who were engaged in strengthening the structure were drowned in the swollen stream. It had rained incessantly all day, and the melting of snow to the northward caused a freshet. The river, which is usually a quiet little stream, became by nightfall a rushing torrent of waters. Ice piled against the bridge ten feet thick, and big gangs of men were called out to break it up, with the hopes of saving the structure. At about 7 o'clock a passenger train passed over the bridge bound for Forestville, twenty miles east. As the locomotive reached the center of the bridge the engineer felt that it was sinking under the train, and, pulling wide the throttle, the engine sputtered and the cars were pulled across in time to avert disaster.

For several weeks a force of men has been at work on the old bridge, and it was to be replaced by one of stone on Sunday. Trains have had orders to run slow over it since work was commenced, and yesterday it sagged dangerously when the passenger train passed over it. A work train with forty bridge repairers was sent from East Hartford and arrived here at 8 o'clock. The train was on the bridge, and twenty men were engaged in taking out bolts and spikes and putting up the rails, when, without a moment's warning, it collapsed, throwing them all into the river. The river makes a sharp turn just above this point, and, being filled to overflowing by the heavy rain, it was very wild, and the greatest difficulty was encountered in attempting the rescue. Four men were dragged ashore and resuscitated and several others were pulled out of the swift torrent while battling against it to no avail. The first report that thirty-six had been drowned brought hundreds to the scene from this and surrounding towns, and it was midnight when the foreman had accounted for twenty-nine of his crew. Eleven are thus known to have lost their lives, and there is a possibility that others who were watching the workmen were swept away with the bridge and drowned.

BELIEVE IT SETTLED.

Venezuelan Difficulty Said to Be Near an End.

London, Feb. 7.—The Chronicle announces that it learns on good authority that a partial settlement of the Venezuelan difficulty has been effected, "or," the Chronicle adds, "if not actually effected, is on the very point of settlement. We believe that the settlement refers to the Yuruan outrage." The Chronicle then gives a long letter from "a well informed Washington correspondent," stating that since the boundary question has assumed an acute phase, Secretary Olney has carefully examined all the facts relating to the Cuyuni incident (the seizure by the Venezuelan authorities of British policemen on territory claimed as Venezuelan), and has arrived at the conclusion that it is a matter entirely separated from boundary questions. The Times prints verbatim from the Congressional Record Senator Wolcott's speech on the Monroe doctrine.

Had a Wonderful Escape.

South McAlester, I. T., Feb. 7.—Near this place, Thursday morning, while running at a speed of thirty miles an hour, the south bound Missouri, Kansas & Texas mail and express train was wrecked, five coaches and one sleeper being badly damaged. The postal car was turned upside down and the express and baggage cars telescoped into each other. The two day coaches and one sleeper were thrown on their sides and badly broken up. Wonderful to relate, no one was hurt. The wreck was caused by defective trucks under the engine tender.

Charged with Desecrating Graves.

Omaha, Neb., Feb. 7.—Deputy Marshal Tomlinson has returned from Boyd county with five citizens arrested on a charge of stealing government property and desecrating the old cemetery at Fort Randall. It is said that they robbed the graves of decorations placed there Decoration day, and upset tombstones; and that they also went to the church and stole the rope attached to the bell.

SWEPT BY TEMPEST.

Savage Gale Raged Thursday All Along the Atlantic Coast.

New York, Feb. 7.—The storm of rain and wind which began Wednesday night was the most severe that has visited this locality for many months. At times Thursday the wind blew at the rate of seventy-two miles an hour, and nothing like its wild swoop up Broadway and through the long avenues has been seen in this city for years. At least a dozen people were taken to their homes or hospitals by patrol wagons, suffering from cuts and bruises inflicted by flying timbers and umbrellas. The storm was especially severe in Westchester county, and caused several wash-outs along the railroad lines. It seems to have been general over New York, New Jersey, and New England. In Connecticut the storm was terrific. At Waterbury the water inundated the principal streets of the city, flooding business houses, washed out roadways, and caused damage of from $40,000 to $50,000. Rutland, Vt., reports that a severe storm of wind, snow and rain prevailed in that section all day. No material damage is reported.

Washington, Feb. 7.—The storm reported twenty-four hours before near Pensacola was central Thursday night at New York city. During its advance to the northeast it has developed into a hurricane. The path of the storm center was at or very nearly parallel to the coast line, passing close to Atlanta, Raleigh, and Washington. The entire coast from Florida to Maine has been swept by violent gales, the wind reaching velocities from fifty to seventy miles. All the Atlantic coast districts have been deluged with heavy rain, except northern New England, where the rain only commenced toward Thursday evening. By the latter time the weather had cleared from Maryland southward.

CHANGE THEIR CONSTITUTION.

Farmers Make Important Elisions of Alliance Principles.

Washington, Feb. 7.—The National Farmers' Alliance and Industrial Union, which has been in session here three days, adjourned Thursday afternoon. The "subtreasury plan," to which the alliance has been committed for a number of years, and the demand for an increase of the circulating medium to $50 per capita were eliminated from the constitution. Resolutions were adopted opposing the refunding of the Pacific railroad debt, and agreeing to meet next year at Dallas, Texas, if the city will make a suitable offer. A committee was appointed to appear before the proper congressional committees to complain of alleged outrages and murders on the Maxwell land grant, in New Mexico and in Colorado, the Des Moines river grant in Iowa, and the Sierra forest grant in California. Alliance members who lived on these grants had complained to the national organization that they were illegally evicted in favor of corporations, and the alliance now proposes to call the attention of congress to these cases.

NEW JERSEY TOWN BURNING.

Bound Brook Seems to Be a Prey to Fire and Water.

Plainfield, N. J., Feb. 7.—Word was received here late last night that a fire had started in Cook's lumber yard at Bound Brook, six miles from this place. The flames spread rapidly and in a short time communicated to houses in the vicinity. Owing to the flooded condition of the streets, the engines were unable to reach the fires for some time, and it is said the entire town is being swept away. A man who reached here late from Bound Brook said the place was doomed when he left there. He thought there were eighteen or twenty houses burning when he left. It is impossible to obtain more details of the fire.

Brutal Murder Near Jackson, Mich.

Jackson, Mich., Feb. 7.—Jerry Scott, colored, living just outside the city, was arrested Thursday charged with the murder of his little daughter. The child was but seven years old, and from the appearance of the little body and all that can be learned of her treatment her murder must have been horrible. There is scarcely a spot on the body that is not either cut, bruised, or burned. It is thought he whipped the last spark of life from her little body. The public is not allowed to see the remains, the authorities fearing the sight of it would so arouse the feelings of the people that lynching would follow.

Russian Grain Crop Short.

London, Feb. 7.—The Russian official crop report for 1895 makes wheat 80,000,000 bushels and rye 115,000,000 bushels less than in 1894.

To Disfranchise German Socialists.

London, Feb. 7.—The Berlin correspondent of the Times says that the government of Saxony has prepared a bill changing the election system and virtually disfranchising the working classes, the avowed object being to exclude socialists from the diet.

William English's End Is Near.

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 7.—The condition of William H. English is critical. The most serious complication in his case is that his heart is greatly affected. He has had several long lapses into unconsciousness.

Gen. Gibbon Dead.

Baltimore, Md., Feb. 7.—Brig. Gen. John A. Gibbon, U. S. A., retired, died here last night. He had been in poor health for some time. He was commander of the Loyal Legion, and served with distinction in the civil war.

JACKSON TELLS HOW MISS BRYAN DIED

FACTS ABOUT THE CINCINNATI CRIME COME OUT.

Scott Jackson's Story Connects Two Others With the Killing—A Copy of It Shown to Dr. Walling and Walling's Explanatory Statement Soon Follows.

Cincinnati, O., Feb. 7.—Scott Jackson, accused of the murder of Pearl Bryan of Greencastle, has confessed his guilt and implicates Alonzo M. Walling. Walling has also confessed to a personal knowledge of the murder of the girl last Friday night.

Jackson's confession was shown to Dr. Walling, and he then prepared his statement, in which he says that Jackson had told him about his trouble with Pearl Bryan, in which he said William Wood was also interested. Jackson never referred to anything except the proposed operation until Pearl Bryan came to this city, on Jan. 28. Then he talked about her condition and consulted with druggists and fellow-students about the best drugs with which to kill.

He says Jackson got drunk a night or two after Pearl came here, and told his room-mate that he proposed to get away with her. He had several plans which he outlined. One was to take her to a room and kill her with drugs, and leave her as if she had suicided. Another plan was to kill her with the drug, cut up the body and drop it in vaults, unless he got a good opportunity to cremate it at his furnace in the dental college. His third plan was with acids, which Walling explained at length.

Walling denies that he was with Jackson and Pearl Bryan in the cab last Friday night before the murder was committed. A colored porter and a bar-keeper who saw the hack drive away from their saloon testified that Walling got into the hack with them.

William Wood, who was brought here from South Bend, under arrest as an accomplice of Scott Jackson and Alonzo Walling, has been released on his own recognizance.

Wood was examined at length by Mayor Caldwell and Chief Deitch. The prisoner said this was the first time he ever visited Cincinnati, and insisted that he had never been here to confer with Jackson, Walling or anyone else. He said he had never been outside of Indiana except for one trip to Chicago. He was questioned very closely about the letter from him that had been captured with the effects of Scott Jackson in the latter's room. Those letters are very obscene and refer specifically to the proposed criminal operation on Pearl Bryan.

Wood said he was a distant relative of the girl and was doing everything in his power to help hide her condition and get her out of trouble. In these letters Wood referred to matters which the officers considered as implicating him in the tragedy, but he denied all knowledge of anything that was ever proposed except the operation.

In these letters Scott Jackson told Wood that Walling, his roommate, had a friend who was an expert chemist and who would take charge of the operation. It turns out that Jackson was referring to himself, so Wood and Walling claim, as the expert chemist, as well as the surgeon.

They called each other liars and were with difficulty prevented from creating a disturbance. Meantime a large crowd surrounded the place and both the men expressed their apprehension for their safety.

They are not anxious to be taken to Newport, Ky., for trial. Just as soon as the preliminary examination is cleared up requisition papers will be issued and the prisoners will be turned over to Sheriff Plummer of Newport, just opposite this city.

The feeling, however, is as strong on this side of the river as it is on the Kentucky side against the men, who are believed to be guilty of the most brutal murder that has ever been committed in this locality. The search for the head of the murdered woman still goes on, but it is believed that Jackson and Walling are the only ones who know where it can be found and some are of the opinion that Jackson is the only one who could solve this part of the mystery.

So far it is known that Pearl Bryan, about to become a mother, and desirous of hiding her shame, left Greencastle, Ind., Tuesday, Jan. 28, ostensibly to visit Mrs. Fisher in Indianapolis; that William Wood saw her to the train; that she came directly to Cincinnati, tried to see Scott Jackson at the dental college that night, but could not; that she registered at the Indiana house as "Mabel Stanley, city."

After that the stories about her do not agree. Alonzo M. Walling, the roommate of Scott Jackson, both of whom were arrested last night charged with the murder, says that Jackson saw Miss Bryan on Wednesday and that he went about the city with her and finally on Friday completed the crime of murder, cutting off the girl's head and bringing it to Cincinnati in her own valise, which he kept until Monday, when he cast the head into a sewer and threw her clothing into the Ohio river. On the other hand, Jackson, in a stolid, half-stupid and always obstinately argumentative manner, placed the entire burden on Walling. According to his story, the lamentable condition of Miss Bryan was attributed to William Wood of Greencastle.

GOLD IS WITHDRAWN FROM THE VAULTS

TREASURY LOSES OVER $1,000,000 THURSDAY.

The Amount Supposed to Be Taken to Pay for the New Bonds—Legislative Proceedings in Both Houses—Our Coast Defenses to Be Considered.

Washington, Feb. 7.—The treasury Thursday lost $1,073,800 in gold coin and $10,400 in bars, leaving the true amount of the reserve $45,298,779. Notwithstanding the success of the new loan, fears are entertained that a considerable share of the gold offered in payment will be withdrawn from the treasury for that purpose.

In anticipation of the loan the gold withdrawn from the treasury during the month from Jan. 6 to Feb. 5 amounted to $7,349,545, which, added to Thursday's withdrawals, makes an aggregate of about $8,500,000. The magnitude of the subscriptions to the loan, which amounted to over $558,000,000, calls attention to the fact that the total amount of gold coin and gold certificates in circulation in the United States is less than $550,000,000, and the natural inference is that a great number of bidders must have depended upon getting their supply from the treasury or outside sources.

What will be the result upon the reserve is a matter of grave concern, and, while it is expected that it will be augmented by at least $111,000,000 as a result of the present sale, it is not so apparent that on the date the last installment becomes due the reserve will not have been reduced to a point not greatly in excess of the $100,000,000 requirement.

The work of scheduling and classifying the bids opened on Wednesday was resumed yesterday, and until the task is completed no information of an exact and definite character can be obtained as to the amounts bid for at each of the several rates, or how low a rate will be accepted. The bid of J. P. Morgan and his associates undoubtedly will be accepted for a large amount, variously estimated at from $45,000,000 to $55,000,000. In any event it can be stated that all legitimate bids at a rate above that submitted by Mr. Morgan (110.6677) will be accepted and that all bids below that rate will be rejected. It was expected by the treasury officials that the secretary would be able to exercise some discretion in the acceptance of the bids, and therefore would be in a position to give the preference to parties who would agree to obtain their gold from abroad. The fact, however, that all bids higher than that made by Mr. Morgan must be accepted precludes the possibility of his making any discrimination whatever, except in rare cases, where the bidder shows that he has foreign gold on the way here and asks for a slight extension of time in which to make his deposit.

The treasury officials are especially gratified at the success of the popular subscription feature of the loan and say that while the schedules of the bidders will undoubtedly show a very large percentage of banks and moneyed institutions, it is indisputably true that in very many cases, and possibly in a majority of them, the banks act as agents of private individuals, who are the real purchasers. It is also believed that the certainty that no bid can be accepted at a rate lower than 110.6677 will have the effect of immediately releasing large quantities of gold which have been accumulated by unsuccessful bidders. Having no further use for their surplus holdings it is argued that a large portion of it will find its way into the subtreasury.

IN THE SENATE.

Tariff-Silver Bill and Its Possible Fate the Feature of Interest.

Washington, Feb. 7.—Senator Quay on Thursday modified his resolution to recommit the tariff bill so as not to include instructions to the committee, and at his own request it went over until Monday. The populist senators have decided in caucus to vote solidly against recommitting the silver substitute for the tariff bill to the committee on finance. If the democrats stand together against the Quay motion the decision of the populists will insure its defeat.

A resolution offered by Mr. Thurston (Rep., Neb.) was agreed to, directing the secretary of state to send to the senate copies of all laws, regulations, and decrees of Germany, France, Belgium and Denmark which discriminate against the introduction of American cattle.

Shortly before 2 o'clock the house bill prohibiting prize fighting in the territories was brought over from the house and was at once taken up, and within three minutes from the time it had been presented to the senate it was passed.

During the proceedings Mr. Morgan (Dem., Ala.) offered an amendment to the resolution of Mr. Quay relative to the recommitting of the tariff-silver bill. Mr. Morgan's amendment instructs the finance committee to add a provision deducting 10 per cent from customs duties on goods imported in vessels of the United States or of the country producing the imported article, provided that the countries exporting such goods shall provide by law that silver bullion, the product of the United States mines, shall be admitted to coinage on equal terms with gold.

Mr. Turpie spoke of the growth of corporation influence. It was notorious that the central bureau of this malevolent corporate power is at the capitals of the various states whenever a United States senator is chosen. Destroy this rule of the trust by giving to the people the election of senators and the ballot of opinion is restored, unawed and unbought. The senator referred to the deadlock in Kentucky and the previous one in Delaware, and pointed out the growing danger of leaving the choice of senators with legislatures instead of with the people.

Indian Appropriation Is Cut.

Washington, Feb. 7.—The Indian appropriation bill has been completed by the committee having it in charge. It carries something over $100,000 less than the appropriation for the current fiscal year. The committee refused to acquiesce in the recommendation of the Interior department for a number of improvements at the Indian schools. The new Indian schools in South Dakota are provided for at $50,000 for both, and an appropriation of $225,000 is inserted for the payment of the Ogden Land Company of New York.

Tame Session in the House.

Washington, Feb. 7.—The senate free coinage substitute for the house bond bill was debated five hours in the house Thursday afternoon and for three hours at the night session. Nevertheless the pressure from members for time to present their views is so great that it seems possible now that the debate may be run over into next week. The speeches Thursday were not noteworthy.

Frye Is President Pro Tem.

Washington, Feb. 7.—An agreement has been arrived at among all parties in the senate for the election of Senator Frye as president pro tem. as the first business after the assembling of the senate today. There will be no opposition nor roll-call. The republican caucus to consider the other elective officers of the senate will be held this afternoon if an adjournment for it can be secured.

Million Acres for Settlers.

Washington, Feb. 7.—The Red Lake and White Earth Indian reservations, comprising about a million acres, and forming part of the old Chippewa reservation in Minnesota, will be opened to settlement on May 1, by a proclamation to be issued shortly.

QUARREL IN COURT.

Prosecutor Simms, in the Shanks Murder Trial, Loses His Temper.

Terre Haute, Ind., Feb. 7.—The public on Thursday came near having what it has been expecting during the two weeks of the Kellar-Shanks murder trial—a fight between the lawyers. At one stage of the proceedings Mr. Simms, who was appointed by the Parke county court to assist in the prosecution, started to do bodily injury to ex-Congressman Lamb of counsel for the defense. A moment later Mr. Simms apologized to the court and to the jury for his exhibition of temper.

The interest in the case had been lagging during the last few days while the doctors were describing the autopsy and discussing medical authorities, but when it was announced at the opening of court that Maggie Kellar, Dan's sister, was too ill to be present, there was much speculation as to whether or not she was breaking down under the strain. By agreement of counsel the record was made to show that she was present, so that there might be no technical objection to her absence. The state will probably be through with the direct evidence to-day.

St. Louis Must Have More Money.

St. Louis, Mo., Feb. 7.—The Republic says that a crisis has been reached in regard to the selection of a place to hold the republican national convention of 1896, and Messrs. Clayton of Arkansas, Campbell of Illinois and Payne of Wisconsin will be invited to come here next Monday and decide whether to hold the convention in the exposition building or build a wigwam. The former will hold 12,000 people, but all cannot hear the proceedings. For this reason a wigwam is proposed as preferable. If the latter is decided upon it will cost $50,000 to build, $30,000 of which is at hand, leaving $20,000 still to be raised.

Colorado Gold Discoveries.

Woodland Park, Colo., Feb. 7.—Free gold having been found in float picked up here, prospectors are rushing in from Cripple Creek and West Creek. This place is midway between these two camps and the gold veins crop out prominently. All float being picked up in neighborhood shows gold in assaying and so all the ground is fast being taken up.

Shea Will Be Electrocutted.

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 7.—Judge Mayham has denied the motion for a new trial for "Bat" Shea. There is no appeal from the decision of Judge Mayham, and Shea will be electrocuted Tuesday next, a reprieve having been granted until that time by Gov. Morton.

Trinidad Dispute Unchanged.

London, Feb. 7.—It is semi-officially denied here that the government of Great Britain has recognized the Island of Trinidad as being a Brazilian possession. It is further stated that the situation of affairs regarding the claims to the ownership of the lands is unchanged.

PAIR OF HUNS DIE IN A SALOON BRAWL

TWO KILLED AND ONE HURT AT WHITING, IND.

Race War the Cause of the Trouble—Citizens Patrol the Town to Protect Their Families—Alleged Murderers Are Under Arrest—The Place Much Disturbed.

Whiting, Ind., Feb. 7.—A saloon fight occurred Thursday afternoon about 2:30 o'clock, in which two men were killed and one seriously wounded. The names of the dead are:

STEPHEN MALJI.

EMIL SZANYO.

The wounded man was:

George Toms.

A traveling man had a narrow escape. He was taking orders in the saloon at the time, and a bullet penetrated his coat and vest and became imbedded in the skin immediately over his heart.

The town is in a state of great excitement. The dead lie in front of the saloon, awaiting the action of the authorities. The murderer or murderers barricaded themselves inside the saloon, and the friends of the murdered men made the scene one of terror. They attempted to break in, while the women cried and moaned in unison. They were nearly all Hungarians. Alonzo Dobbins has the credit of breaking in and making the arrests. The desperate character and marksmanship of the men made them much feared. Four men are under arrest, the saloonkeeper being by many the suspected one. His name is Joseph Maaritk.

The peaceable citizens of that part of the town are terribly excited and blame the multiplicity of saloons for the trouble. The place is close to the Standard Oil works, and the number of Hungarians, Slavs and Poles who live here and work for the great plant are a nuisance and a terror by reason of their free use of firearms. They don't always shoot to kill, as they did in this instance.

The people are blaming the authorities for allowing them to carry firearms. Citizens are patrolling the town, anxious for the safety of their families. There are rumors of an uprising of the murdered men's friends, and it may occur at any moment.

Opinions differ about the cause of the fatal brawl. One man says it is a race war, the saloonkeeper being a Slav and most of his customers Hungarians and Poles. Officials from Hammond are in town investigating the trouble.

TWENTY-FIVE MISSING.

Dam Breaks and Inundates Part of Morristown, N. J.

Morristown, N. J., Feb. 7.—The dam at Pocahontas Lake broke last night and all the lower part of this city was inundated. So far as is known no lives have been lost, although twenty-five persons are missing.

All the day the melting snow had swollen the streams and poured into the lake, which is a mile and a half long by three-quarters of a mile wide. It was covered by eight inches of ice, and the whole was held in check by the frailest and flimsiest wooden dams. The water rose to the top. Meanwhile the water rushing through the flume and from all the sewers had filled the Whippany river, which flows through Morristown, to the brim, and the water ran over.

Crowds of people flocked down to view the spreading waters. Suddenly, with a great crash, a section of the dam, eighteen feet, went down. A wall of water six feet high swept into the valley, quickly followed by thousands of tons of ice.

MILITIA CALLED OUT.

Kentucky State Troops to Guard the Legislative Session.

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 7.—After a consultation between Governor Bradley, Dr. Hunter, and other republicans, it was decided to call out the state militia to be present during the balloting for United States senator after the unseating of members shall have begun. This will certainly provoke trouble, perhaps today.

Gov. Matthews Indorsed.

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 7.—The annual meeting of the Democratic Editorial Association occurred Thursday. The following resolution failed to carry by a vote of 18 to 8: "We reaffirm our belief in the necessity for early and complete restoration of silver to the place it occupied in our monetary system prior to 1873, and heartily congratulate our senators, Voorhees and Turpie, for their recent vote for the restoration of silver." Gov. Matthews was unanimously indorsed for president and his course on the apportionment imbroglio was also indorsed. F. D. Himebaugh, of Muncie, was elected president.

Spain Plans a Coup.

Washington, Feb. 7.—It is said that the state department has advices from Spain that when General Weyler takes command of the Spanish forces in Cuba he will issue a proclamation practically giving belligerent rights to the insurgents. This is regarded as a shrewd diplomatic move to prevent the apparent concession of these rights if asked for by the passage of the Cuban resolutions reported to the senate last week by the committee on foreign relations.

BAD ROADS COSTLY SAYS A. C. POWERS

ROCK COUNTY IS LOSING HEAVILY.

Every Farmer Who Has to Make Two Trips With Loads That Might As Well Be Combined in One Is Paying a Tax of Two Dollars.

A. C. Powers tells Rock county people some plain facts about what bad roads cost them. He says: Wisconsin took no steps toward passing laws in favor of road improvement until the session of 1893, when the Apple bill became a law. Although it has many weak points it is a long stride in the right direction and we trust is a stepping stone for other and better laws. In Rock county more of the towns are working under the new law and the improved condition of the highways are very marked, but in a large portion of the state, however, are practically under the old law, with old results.

What is needed is a change that will produce permanency of good qualities in the highway, and not something which at best shall only be a temporary makeshift, was the basic principle of our early and in fact I might say, our only road law, the one under which we have been working, or perhaps a better word would be playing, for nearly sixty years, with the results that in many places the highways are not as good as when civilized men wrested them from the followers of Black Hawk. They started as a monument to our short sighted folly, a stretch of sand or an inviting hog wallow, a terror and an insult to the teamster and the traveling public, whose chief utility would seem to be to divide the broad acres of A to the broader ones of B and not for a public thoroughfare. It is a self evident fact, that in a section possessing good roads, there is greater business activity than in one where no pains are taken to smooth down inequality of surface, cut away hills, fill in low places, build solid and permanent bridges or look to the interest of the community by displaying the same degree of enterprise in the way of road making they would in any other line of business, losing sight of the fact that no investment will pay as large a dividend as a tax for good roads if the money is judiciously used.

Make Three Loads of One. It pays in satisfaction, it pays in a saving on wages and teams, in saving of time, as you are oftentimes compelled to make two or even three trips to market to draw what would be a light load, on a macadamized road, and last but by no means least, the enhanced value of land adjoining such a road would doubly pay the investment. Perhaps there are some who may doubt the soundness of this assertion, and say we lack the proof.

Let me say it has been tried in almost hundreds of cases, and in no one instance has it failed to produce such effect, and I am informed by a gentleman residing in the eastern part of the state, that land lying contiguous to the proposed Sheridan's drive, has materially advanced in price in some instances, enough to make quite a payment toward the improvement. We can expect the same results in Wisconsin as has been shown in the eastern or older states.

How Shall Roads Be Made? Admitting that we need better roads, and we think the most fossilized old fogies we have will not argue that we are wrong; the only controversy is in the mode of application, and if we have seventy millions of population it would seem that we have nearly as many ideas as what should or should not be done, from those that would bond the state, county and town to those like Micawbar, sit by the wayside, waiting for something to turn up, or when good roads, like the gospel, can be had without money or without price.

Few people take a correct view of the actual profit to farmers and business in general, of good roads, or how much they could afford to pay for them. Is it not a fact that in some seasons, for weeks together, business is at a complete standstill, caused by the impassable condition of the roads, and the loss incurred amounts to millions of dollars annually, caused by not marketing grain and other crops in proper season, and to the merchant who finds his shelf fitted with unseasonable goods?

In round numbers there are six hundred and fifty thousand farms in Illinois, Iowa and Wisconsin. I suppose that on the average there are ten loads of grain and produce to be marketed; feed, fuel and other material to be brought back, say at a cost of two dollars a load. Macadamize these roads and the same labor can be performed at one-half the cost, and this saving in one year would build thirteen thousand miles of good road at an outlay of $500 a mile.

What It Means in Rock. Apply this same rule to Rock county, and the saving in twenty-five years would build a stone road over every mile of highway in the county and saving in wear and tear, upon vehicles, would keep it in repair.

In building a road we would cut down all hills of every magnitude, we would draw crushed rock or gravel upon the center line of this highway to the depth of eight or ten inches, ten feet wide, placed between planks that serve as temporary curbs, then with a road grader we would reinforce our stone work at each side, eight feet wide, with earth taken from the sides, making our embankment when completed twenty-six feet wide at the top sloping gradually to the outside gutter. For quite a portion of the year this outside part of your road would be fine for light drawing, and the stone part for heavy traffic. Such a road as this would be available at all times over which at all seasons of the year, the markets of the cities would be accessible and protracted rains and general breakups, are no terror to the traveling public, and the weight of the load is only limited by the strength of the wagon.

Road Bonds Not Essential To bring about this result it would not be needful to bond your town or even impose burdensome taxes. Put the best men you have at the head of your road commission, commence at your city limits and work into the country, having the tax payer perform the labor if he so elects, subject to the same rules that govern other labor, and my word for it, it would be but a few years until Rock county roads would be models for the world. It matters not what principle or what material we use in the construction of roads, so long as the narrow tire reigns supreme. Were it built of adamant and coated with steel, it would give way before this fell destroyer, which must be banished from the face of the earth before we reach the same of success in good roads. Not only exempt the broad tire from taxation, but make it a states prison offense for drawing a load on a wagon with a tire of lesser width than four inches.

MONTEREY POWER COMPANY MEET

Matters Connected With Water Matters Are Considered—Hiring a Watchman

The Monterey Water Power Company held a business meeting last evening at the office of Attorney G. G. Sutherland. The Power company includes the Woolen Mills, the Cotton Mills and the Bower City Light and Power Company. A committee was appointed to represent the company, W. G. Heller representing the Cotton Mills, Jonathan Ellis the Woolen Mills, and W. F. Hayes for the Bower City Light and Power Company. W. G. Heller was elected secretary and W. F. Hayes chairman. The appointment of Thomas Croft as watchman for the Power company was then considered. Mr. Croft has been supervising the water measurements for the company for the past three months. Nothing definite has been done in the matter of hiring him and he is to report as to what salary he expects, at the next meeting.

THIS DAY IN HISTORY.

1800—Millard Fillmore, thirteenth president, born in Summerville, N. Y.; died 1854.

1807—Battle of Eilan, bloody, but indecisive; Bonaparte against the Russians and Prussians.

1813—Charles Dickens, novelist, born; died 1870.

1863—H. M. S. Orpheus wrecked in Manukau harbor, New Zealand. Out of 200 officers, sailors and marines on board 190 were lost.

1870—Admiral Silas H. Stringham, U. S. N., distinguished in all the wars from 1812 to 1891, died in Brooklyn; born at Middletown, Orange county, N. Y., 1794.

1892—Hotel Royal burned in New York; 70 people perished.

QUITE UP TO DATE.

A New York inventor promises that electric light will be delivered through tubes instead of wires, the light issuing from an apparatus no larger than a teacup, and in its glow resembling daylight. It is to be produced by a light current passed through a vacuum without a filament, and is said to be due to the vibrations of the universal ether. This phrase sounds well, and shows what science is up to in these days of extraordinary inventions and discoveries.

A GREAT BOON.

A number of leading physiologists who have been interviewed on the electric illumination of the interior of the human frame think that the new form of photography will be chiefly useful in the discovery of tumors and the location of foreign substances in the body. If it assists in keeping the vermiform appendix in subjection mankind will cheerfully acknowledge that the Rontgen light is a boon.

EDISON AS A WARRIOR.

It is hardly in order for the English to laugh at the idea of Edison turning his attention to war when they have just put an Ashantee army to flight by a night attack, in which Roman candles, sky-rockets and a pandemonium of fire crackers were the leading features. Not a man was injured on either side, and as the Ashantee braves are still running, a new leaf has been added to the military art.

Gorman is determined that he shall not be blamed for the overwhelming defeat which the democratic party will get this year, and has announced his retirement from the firm of democratic national bosses. He'll retire from the job of bossing Maryland democrats when that state elects another republican legislature.

Missouri is going to break the record by hanging a millionaire, for the murder of his wife and child, unless the verdict of the jury which convicted him can be upset in some way, or the governor interposes his authority.

The New York Herald isn't the best political authority, but when it said that the "bustling republican" canvasses strongly contrast with halting democratic work," it gave a correct birdseye view of the situation.

Congressman McMillin has the wisdom of his years in at least one direction. Knowing that the next governor of Tennessee will be a republican he declines to become the democratic candidate.

The English are pretending to be sympathizing with Ambassador Bayard on account of congressional censure; but the most of them probably feel as much contempt for him as good Americans do.

Lord Salisbury was doubtless actuated by good will when he gave Mr. Cleveland a hint of the uselessness of forwarding those Armenian resolutions, but congress may not accept it that way.

It would be interesting to know just how many democratic senators are on speaking terms with the democratic president.

Senator Hill must have abandoned his presidential aspirations or he would not be posing in the role of "funny man."

To say that a man is Tillmanesque is the newest way to say that he is a blackguard.

Mr. Cleveland might utilize a comic valentine to get even with Tillman.

CAN'T BUY BUT TEN SEATS AT ONCE

Efforts to Get Blocks of Home Mastadons Tickets Not Permitted.

The rule that Manager Stoddard, of the Myers Grand, has adopted, in regard to the purchasing of tickets, in lots not to exceed ten, is a good one. It is hoped it will be strictly adhered to. There were several disappointed parties this afternoon, one party hailing from Beloit and the others from Evansville, where a home minstrel performance was given several days ago. Both parties wanted to buy tickets, in blocks of twenty and twenty-four for the Home Mastadon performance on next Monday and Tuesday evenings, but when told the rule that prevailed in that respect, gracefully submitted and deposited their cash with friends, with instructions to be on deck bright and early Saturday morning, when the box office will be opened for the sale of seats.

HAS THERE BEEN A MEETING?

A Correspondent Inquires About the County Agricultural Society.

EDITORS OF GAZETTE:—In yesterday's paper you publish the minutes of the annual meetings of the Rock County Agricultural society and that the report had been sworn to and sent to Madison. The president declared that meeting illegal and void and a special meeting was held and other officers elected. Will you let us know if we have had an annual meeting, and if your article was correct, is that the board of directors for the coming year. If not, and that meeting was illegal, has there been any report made, and salaries fixed, and have we had the annual meeting? By giving us some light on this subject you will confer a favor on many stockholders.

You Must Have Money to Burn.

A man must have money to burn that will buy cheap trash clothing with it. It is the most foolish place you could put it. There is economy always in buying a suit that is made by reliable makers like Adler Bros., of Rochester, N. Y. We have got the best line this season we ever showed. Frank Baack.

Accident Insurance.

The American Mutual Accident Association of Oshkosh has now completed seven years of business, during which time it has paid over $135,000 in claims. The management has not felt called upon to resist in the courts to exceed ten, in the adjustment and payment of the 3,385 claims. This is a record of which the association is justly proud, and which for its manifest fair dealing should commend the "American" to all who desire a safe and economical accident insurance.—Oshkosh Times.

Bobby Gaylor at the Myers

Few comedians on the stage today are superior to Mr. Gaylor as an Irishman. He has a peculiar mannerism distinctly original, which has made him the target for imitation. In his new play, "In a Big City" which he will present at the Myers tonight, he is said to have ample scope for the display of his peculiar talent.

FALSE TEETH ARE "NECESSITIES."

Justice Prichard Says They Are Nothing of a Fancy Nature.

Justice Prichard today decided that false teeth were not luxuries but necessities and that money paid for imitation "ivories" could properly be deducted from wages. This decision was rendered in the suit of Anna Munke against G. Wilcox.

Miss Munke sued for wages, and Wilcox swore that he had paid out all the money due her, in meeting bills incurred for "necessities." A set of false teeth was one of the items listed. Justice Prichard said his defence was valid.

MR. WILDER CALLED TO PUEBLO.

Very Flattering Invitation Given to the Janesville Clergyman.

Rev. S. P. Wilder, of the Congregational church, has received a very flattering call to the pulpit of the First Presbyterian church, of Pueblo, one of the most prominent churches in Colorado.

The call comes entirely unsought, Mr. Wilder, having been suggested to members of the Pueblo church by friends in the west. He visited Pueblo some time ago and was favorably received.

It is not yet certain whether Mr. Wilder will accept. He has been with the Janesville church nine years, a longer time than any pastor since Rev. Mr. Foote, and if he decides to go west, it will be with a feeling that his Janesville charge is left in the best of condition.

Easily Fixed.
A certain well-known "blood-and-thunder" producer arranged with a cheap firm of Paris "awful" publishers to receive week by week the blocks they had used for the illustration of a thrilling seventeenth century novel. By some sort of mistake one Thursday an up-to-date semi-society block was substituted. Said the luckless serial-creating creature whose duty was to write up the blocks as they came in: "Really, Mr. —, how can I possibly work it in? This is a nineteenth century subject, and my story is Louise Treize." With much indignation the publisher burst forth with, "— Louey Trays—trays or teapots neither! I pay you good money and you do your work. If you ain't got the imagination for it why do you take my money? Have the kindness to 'and over that there proof; I'll do the hunderline myself." And the "hunderline" appeared this wise: "They retired into the wood and disguised themselves in modern costume." —San Francisco Argonaut.

R. M. BOSTWICK,

No. 16 South Main Street.

The Usual Way.
His love was a lass who, night and morn,
Milked a cow with a crumpled horn,
And though the lover was tattered and torn,
She vowed she would never leave him forlorn.
But the squire rode by in his one-horse
shay,
And fell in love with the rustic fay;
He was old, but rich, and the tattered jay
Figured second best man on her wedding day.

—R. G. Taber, in Truth.

A Different Article.
"Johnny," said the boy's mother,
"you've been playing in the dirt again."
"Dirt's something that's cheap and everybody wants to get rid of, ain't it?" he asked.
"Yes."
"Well, I ain't been playing in any dirt. This was coal dust."—Washington Star.

The Inky War.
"The armaments that thunder-strike the walls
Of rock-built cities, bidding nations quake,"
Cause for the printer's devil many bawls,
And make the journals' great steam presses shake.

—Truth.

AFTER THE FIRST DRINK.

"Ain't yez me pertickeler frind, Casey, me boy?"
"Donovan, me good man, an' if Oi was pertickeler, Oi wouldn't be yure frind!"—Life.

Those Fearful Price Marks.
"It's no use," she said, sadly. "We'll have to keep this ourselves and get something else for Aunt Hannah's birthday present."
"Why?" he asked.
"They must have put the bargain-day
price-mark on this with indelible ink.
It won't come off."—Chicago Evening Post.

His Mistake.
I caught her in the hall,
And twenty times I kissed her,
And then contritely said:
"I thought you were my sister!"
But what a sell, by Jove!
I felt so like a clam!
The girl I kissed laughed gayly;
"You silly boy, I am!"
—Syracuse Post.

He Understood Him.
"I tell you, my brethren," cried the rector, "the devil does not stay at home;
he's at work—he is abroad."
"I know what's coming," whispered the head warden to his wife. "He's going to put in a bid to be allowed to go abroad with him."—Harper's Bazar.

A Different Question.
"What will you take for that picture?" said Hunker, to his artist friend, indicating a painting just finished.
"The price is $500."
"Exactly; but what will you take for it?"—To Date.

Medical Item.
Dr. Perkins Sooner remarked to a friend: "Medical science has made wonderful strides in the last 50 years."
"I can't see it. People died then just the same as they do now." — Dallas (Tex.) Sifter.

Returns Not All In.
"I hired a bicycle yesterday and took a spin."
"What did the rent cost you?"
"Don't know; haven't heard from my tailor yet."—Chicago Record.

When He Died.
He vowed that his love would be chang-
less and true,
Surviving man's oft-shifting humors;
Yet in spite of his protests she lost him; he died.
On the day that he saw her in bloomers.
—Washington Star.

None Lower.
"You say he has sunk very low?"
"Clear to the depths."
"What is he doing?"
"He's a professional juryman."—
Chicago Post.

True Enough.
Mrs. Chatterly—Ah, marriage is a lottery, after all!
Mr. Chaffers—Very true; but it's one in which man and maid are drawn together!—N. Y. World.

Somewhat Pessimistic.
She—Now that we are married, how do you like me?
He—I can't tell yet. You can't tell much about a woman until after the silver wedding.—Dallas (Tex.) Sifter.

Permanent.
Skinner—Is Mr. Laylow one of your permanent boarders?
The Landlady—He is. I told him he couldn't leave until he had paid up.—
Life.

The End That Pains.
You never hear the bee complain,
Nor hear it weep nor wail;
But if it wish, it can unfold
A very painful tail.
—Day City Chat.

Her Idea of It.
Miss Watterno—What do they mean
by sound money?
Mrs. Lakeside (who gets hers regularly)—I guess it must be alimony.—
N. Y. World.

Whose Wheel?
"Poor Brown was knocked down just now by a carriage that passed over his head."
"Did it take a wheel off?" — Town
Topics.

The Protection Policy Applied to a Great Janesville Clothing House...

Boiled down, this is it---to create the greatest value for the least money. It's easy to sell at the average price. We're doing a great deal better now than selling $10.00 Suits for $10.00. We are selling what have been known as ten and twelve dollar suits for many a day for $6.00 and $7.50. You'll be told it can't be. All we say is: There's a host of people who have had them and selling a dozen to twenty a day is a common occurrence even during these dull days.

The Best Speech Makers and Advertisements We Have

Today are the Satisfied Wearers of These...

Bring 'em back if they are not satisfactory. THAT'S OUR PROTECTION TO YOU. Bring 'em back for your money. Our best $18, $20 and $25 Suits and Overcoats at exact cost to us if you want them. The season is advancing but it would seem it would pay you to buy a heavy Suit or Overcoat and lay it aside for next winter. Don't be tempted to buy poor clothes. You are easily fooled if you do. What is there about poor stuff that you like so much? You can see with your own eyes the such clothes don't fit. You can feel with your own hands that they're made of base material. Is it that price? They are more expensive than good clothes. The only thing we can think of is that you buy poor clothes just to be stubborn and nothing else.

The "MIDDLESEX" Sox go now at 10 cents per pair.

Good Laundered or Un-laundered Shirts at 37 cents.
